

Developing Talk for EY and KS1 Pupils

Hounslow Language Service Ltd

Tuesday 1st November 2022
Afternoon—1.00-3.00pm
Online Live Webinar

This webinar is appropriate for Foundation Stage and KS1 and will offer ideas to develop vocabulary and phonological awareness.

This session will be particularly good for developing the language and grammatical accuracy of EAL learners at early stages of learning English.

The benefits of using music, songs and rhymes in promoting language development will be explored alongside practical techniques to develop speaking and listening as a rehearsal for writing.

There will be a focus on how participants can model and encourage talk based around stories through a range of activities.

This course is suitable for all practitioners in Early Years settings and KS1.
