Hounslow Language Service Ltd

Tuesday 15th November 2022
1.00-3.00pm
Online Live Webinar

This session identifies a range of small words which are necessary for academic success but appear difficult for EAL learners to master. We will examine how they work in texts so that we can effectively help pupils understand what they read.

Participants will have an opportunity to explore some tried and tested classroom strategies which develop pupils' reading comprehension and their ability to write with subtlety and greater precision.

This course is suitable for all staff working from KS1-KS4
