

Classroom Strategies for Working with Beginners and Refugee Pupils

Hounslow Language Service Ltd

Thursday 10th November 2022
Afternoon—1.00-3.00pm
Online Live Webinar

This session focuses on the teaching of survival English as well as strategies that enable beginners and early stage learners of EAL to access all areas of the curriculum.

We explore the skills that these pupils need in order to take part in the oral and literacy tasks in the classroom. We also look at ways of developing thinking skills in relation to content and language.

This course is suitable for all teachers and support staff working from Foundation Stage to Key Stage 3.
